

Mitch Lewis photos

Jerry Lamb grids for a run in his FS Ford Mustang at Nationals in Topeka, Kan. Below: The original “Kenny” cone.

Solo: Done so soon?

It doesn't seem possible that the Solo season is almost over. I guess it proves the adage, "Time flies when you're having fun." Mid-

DANCING WITH CONES

DICK WILLY
ASSISTANT RE, SOLO

August through mid-September was a blur, starting with: the Packwood National Tour, Evolution School and ProSolo, Aug. 15-24; NWR Event No. 7 on Labor Day weekend; the Pro Finale on Sept. 12 and 13; and the Solo Championships Sept. 16-19. The last NWR Solo event was Sunday, Oct. 19 at Bremerton Motorsports Park. On top of that, throw in two WWSCC and two BSCC events, just to stave off boredom. I'm not going to try to do justice to all

Geoff goes to Topeka

Here's my vids from Nats! First day (West) I ended up fourth. Second day I was dirty my first two runs. I was hitting them in the back straight so the third run I had to lift a few times in it, ended up clean and faster. That was incredibly stressful, knowing if I cone I'm in 30-something place or if clean in the top 3, so intense! Ended up second only .260 overall behind first.

West (Day 1): www.youtube.com/watch?v=XpAGqMasybw

East: www.youtube.com/watch?v=URG-WU4Aoq8

Click "watch in high quality" just below the window.

— Geoff Clark